FAST COMPANY

“Bike Hunters promise to recover stolen e-bikes – but really make you want one of your own.”

The New York Times, 2022

Bikes made practically unstealable

We're putting bike thieves out of business with our integrated GSM location tracking, tamper detection alarms, integrated Kick Lock, remote lockdown mode, and anti-theft Peace of Mind service.

If the unthinkable happens and your bike is stolen, our global team of Bike Hunters will immediately get to work to recover your bike within two weeks. If they can't, we'll replace your bike with one of the same (or better) age and condition.

Watch the adventures of our ruthless Bike Hunters as they take on bike thieves in cities worldwide.
