Anantara Siam Bangkok Hotel recently brought together culinary talent, hotel team members and Thai heritage in an ambitious attempt to create a spectacular 101.15-metre-long mango sticky rice, culminating in a Guinness World Records™ achievement for the longest mango sticky rice in the world.

The record-breaking attempt took place during World Gourmet Festival 2026 bringing together MICHELIN-recognised chefs and the hotel's culinary team bring this distinctly Thai creation to life on an extraordinary scale. From preparing the fragrant sticky rice and ripe mangoes to assembling the creation piece by piece, the achievement showcased the precision, creativity and teamwork behind Anantara Siam's culinary offering.

Among the celebrated names were Chef Georgiana Viou of L'Ami, Cotonou; Chef Heros De Agostinis of INEO, Rome; Chef Josiah Citrin of Mélisse & Citrin, California; Chef Arnaud Dunand of Maison Dunand, Bangkok; Chef Paul Gamauf of EDVARD, Vienna; Chef Supakarn "Hong" Lienpanich of Dara Cuisine Phuket and Chef Cho Eunjung of Honeybee Seoul. Leading the Anantara Siam Bangkok culinary team were Chef Justin Paul Baziuk, Executive Chef; Chef Giuseppe Bonura, Chef de Cuisine of Biscotti; Chef Marco Chavez, Chef de Cuisine of Madison; Chef Axel Javier Correa Mancera, Chef de Cuisine of Guilty Bangkok; and Chef Akkawin Pitrachart, Executive Thai Chef of Spice Market.

After the event, the mango sticky rice was passed on to Scholars of Sustenance Thailand (SOS Thailand), supporting the organisation's mission to rescue safe, high-quality surplus food and redistribute it to communities and people in need.

This meaningful next chapter turned the record-breaking creation into an opportunity to share its goodness beyond the festival, reflecting Anantara Siam Bangkok's commitment to celebrating food not only through exceptional culinary experiences, but also through purpose, sustainability and community.

"We are incredibly proud to have achieved this remarkable milestone, which celebrates the richness of Thai culinary heritage and the extraordinary talent and teamwork of our colleagues and chefs from around the world," said Torsten Richter, General Manager of Anantara Siam Bangkok Hotel. "At Anantara Siam Bangkok, we believe that food has the power to bring people together and create meaningful connections. By sharing our Guinness World record-breaking mango sticky rice with Scholars of Sustenance Thailand, we are delighted that this celebration can extend beyond the festival and bring a little more goodness to the wider community."

More than a Guinness World Records™ achievement, the 101.15-metre creation celebrated Thai heritage, culinary craftsmanship, community and the joy of sharing, perfectly capturing the spirit of the World Gourmet Festival 2026 at Anantara Siam Bangkok.
