Pulte Homes Opens Newest Indianapolis-Area Community

Bridle Oaks to feature two home designs new to market

Pulte Homes announces the grand opening of its newest Indianapolis-area community, Bridle Oaks, on Saturday, October 16.

Nestled just outside of Whitestown, Bridle Oaks offers new construction, single-family homes featuring five home designs with energy-efficient floor plans, professionally designed interior color packages, and all-included features such as upgraded cabinets, flooring, finishes and more, all created to take the guesswork out of customizing a home.

“Bridle Oaks is not only a beautiful community, but also perfectly located to provide a wide variety of nearby amenities for the outdoor enthusiast, including direct access to the Big 4 Rail Trail which connects to downtown Whitestown,” said Scott Mairn, PulteGroup’s Indianapolis Division President. “Within the community, residents and guests will find an on-site playground, common areas, and two ponds to mingle with neighbors and friends."

The Bridle Oaks collection of homes include the popular Boardwalk, Fifth Avenue and Newberry designs, as well as two plans, the Claypool and Mercer, both new to the market. Ranging from 2,426 to 2,376 sq. ft. in size with 3-5 bedrooms, 2.5-4 bathrooms and 2-car garages, each of the home designs boast open-concept living with More Life Built In, meaning every inch is meticulously planned to meet your family's needs. Pricing starts in the mid $300's.

Outside the community, residents have easy access to both Whitestown and Zionsville and their ample shopping and dining venues, and I-65, which connects to I-465, is less than four miles away. The 11-acre Main Street Park, featuring a playground, turf play area, sledding hill, splash pad, picnic shelter, fitness trail, and sports courts provides year-round activities and is just one mile from Bridle Oaks.

Interested buyers are welcome to visit the Bridle Oaks sales center and tour its fully furnished model at 6524 Seabiscuit Road, Whitestown, IN 46075.
