TNW produces NN IP UpsideDown Series

Looking at ways to support their ecosystem navigate the effects of COVID-19 in the investment world, NN IP decided to collaborate with TNW to produce an event series of 4 main episodes and 9 additional lectures.

Inspired by the TNW Couch Conferences taking place in June 2020, production was managed by TNW - studio, set, and speaker tech support - while NN IP was in charge of the content.

The 13 sessions featured moderators in studio and online and exceeded NN IP target audience expectations by 4x.
