

SoundCloud is now compatible with Pioneer DJ's DJM-REC recording app for iOS

July 17, 2018, New York, NY-- In partnership with Pioneer DJ, SoundCloud, the world's largest open audio platform, is excited to announce it is now supported by Pioneer's DJM-REC recording app on iOS. The new collaboration makes it easier than ever for artists, DJs and podcasters to record, upload and share content directly to SoundCloud using the DJM-REC app.

The DJM-REC app offers SoundCloud creators a simple connection to DJM series mixers equipped with the send/return feature, high-quality audio recording that minimizes clipping and distortion, post-production mixing capabilities, tracklist editing, plus fast, effortless sharing directly to SoundCloud.

SoundCloud's mission is to empower creators with the best tools, services and resources to help them build and grow their careers. The collaboration with Pioneer DJ adds to the growing list of partnerships and integrations available to its creator community including: Apple GarageBand, Apple Logic X, Ableton Live, Avid ProTools, Steinberg Cubase, Music Maker Jam and PreSonus Studio One.

Pioneer DJ's DJM-REC can be downloaded from the Apple App Store, and purchased for $9.99 (after a 30-day free trial period). Learn more about the DJM-REC app here.
