Whether a new parent or existing one, the Abbey Hotel offers comfortable beds and premium facilities to help with a good night's sleep and a range of newly renovated rooms with modern features and design.

Fully immersing guests in Bath's thriving arts scene, the new rooms have been given a stylish makeover to cover three creative themes; film, art and photography. From modern lighting to framed artwork and vibrant colour schemes, the concept for each bedroom is based on the city's connections to art and culture over the years.

The hotel's new look ArtBar has been renovated and 'redefined' into an eclectic space of different lights, materials and textures. Sleek and stylish, the new design has a contemporary gallery feel with evolving collections every quarter showcasing the vibrant creative talent of local artists, photographers and sculptors. Bringing the creative theme into its drinks' menu, a new cocktail, Artistic License, is now available reflecting elements of the exhibited artworks.
