SINGAPORE, 14 JUNE 2016 - Brooklyn-based brothers Mike and Josh Greenfield are back for a second season of their popular food adventures series Brothers Green: EATS! which will premiere on MTV on Monday, 4 July at 6.30pm (TH/WIB), 7.30pm (SG) and 8.30pm (MY). It debuts in the Philippines on Wednesday, 6 July at 12am. The half-hour MTV show follows the brothers as they draw culinary inspiration from people and cities around the world. This season, the Brothers Green are going all out, cooking in the backseat of a moving hot rod and taking on UFC fighters in an effort to make people's lives a little more delicious.

In season two, the guys are travelling around the world to different cities while cooking with musicians like Austin Mahone and Joe Jonas as well as hanging with blogger Michelle Phan and rapper Lil Dicky. Model/actress April Rose will regularly join the brothers in their Brooklyn loft providing hilarious commentary.

Each city they travel to finds them meeting new characters who take the brothers on adventures off the beaten path. Whether they're freestyling on a beach with a Brazilian superstar, or showing their college fans a couple of "hacks" to make dorm life better, the Brothers Green create awesome eats for the people they meet and seamlessly blend music, travel, food and comedy into a show you can only find on MTV.

Brothers Green: EATS! is produced for MTV by Storyville Entertainment; executive producers are Betsy Schechter, Jon Murray and Andy Stuckey (for Storyville Entertainment) and Bruce Gillmer and Jennifer Harris (for MTV International).
