

Envato named one of 2015's Best Places to Work

Envato has placed 12th in the BRW Best Places to Work 2015 Study, a catalogue of the 50 top employers in Australia.

This is the first time Envato, one of Australia's most successful startups, has been recognised in the awards. In 2014 Envato was named Australia's Coolest Tech Company by JobAdvisor.

Based on one of the world's most comprehensive studies of workplace culture by Great Place to Work Australia, the BRW Best Places to Work survey is widely acclaimed.

Great Place to Work Australia is part of Great Place to Work Inc - a global research and consulting firm specialising in workplace excellence and development of high-trust and high-engagement workplace cultures.

Their proprietary research tool, the Trust Index® Employee Engagement Survey, is taken annually by over 10 million employees worldwide. Leading companies worldwide use the model to increase the levels of trust across their organisations and drive business results.

"It is no coincidence that the best workplaces are also extremely profitable and successful companies," said Zrinka Lovrencic, MD of Great Place to Work Australia.

"Research by our firm definitively showcases that the best places to work outperform their competitors. There is an absolute ROI when companies invest in creating a high-trust workplace culture. Great workplaces have significantly less turnover and produce employees who have a vested interest in the company.

"These 50 companies set the standard for businesses."

"We are thrilled and excited to be named one of 2015's Great Places to Work in Australia," said Envato HR Director James Law.

"The Envato founders have spent a lot of energy building a business they themselves would like to work at, and we are striving to continue that focus as we grow.

"Everyone at Envato plays a role in making Envato a great place to work. It's a dedication to attracting and engaging great people that allows us provide those people with an environment they can be proud of."

The BRW 2015 Best Places to Work will be published in a feature insert in Australian Financial Review, www.brw.com.au, and www.greatplacetowork.com.au on Wednesday 2nd September 2015.
