Shooting straight into the global charts with their debut single #Selfie in 2014 - just a few short years, three multiplatinum singles and five billion streams later, the electro-dance music twosome (comprised of Alex Pall and Drew Taggart), hit stratospheric status with their 2016 single Closer. Billboard Hot 100's longest running #1 single of 2016, the track held the top spot for 12 uninterrupted weeks and recently broke the record for number of weeks at #1 on the Billboard Dance/Mixshow chart, topping the chart 17 weeks running.

The pair had left it up to their fans to decide whether they were to release an album or not - and the clamour has been heard across the world. In response to popular demand, The Chainsmokers announced last week that they will release their debut album this year via Columbia / Disruptor Records. Their latest single Paris is out now.

"The Chainsmokers absolutely dominated 2016 & we couldn't be more excited to have them join us in Malta for Isle of MTV this year. It's going to be an amazing, MUST experience event!"
