Practical information

Date and time: 27th of June 2019. 19:30-22:30h. Our receptionist will be on the spot until about 20:00h. If you want to attend but cannot make it in time, no problem, just please let us know so we can inform her.

Adress: Danzigerkade 16N, 1013AP, Amsterdam. The event will take place on the 6th floor, which is better known as the office of N=5.

Public transport: the location is nearby busstop 'Koivistokade', which is reachable by bus number 48. This busline will take you from Amsterdam Central Station to the Koivistokade, which is about 3 minutes walking distance from the event location. Of course, you can also rent a OV-bike at the train station and cycle in about 10 minutes.

Parking: there are (limited) parking spaces available at the location. If you arrive by car please call 020 535 6373. Our receptionist will then open the barrier for you and guide you to a suited parking spot. Also, there are two large parking garages nearby: parking garage Houthavens and parking garage Minerva.

23 Innovations in Digital Communication will be released in the Netherlands on the 12th of June. The book will be available on the BIS Publishers website and in stores soon after.
