

INSTORE Looking for the Country's Top Bench Jewelers

Artists shine at the industry's most prestigious competition

Info Chicago, USA | Published on: October 24, 2014

Summary The SMART Jewelry Show is looking for eight North America-based bench jewelers to compete in two competition categories: four competitors each for the All-Around Challenge and the CAD Challenge. Each will receive round-trip airfare to the show and two nights accommodation at the show hotel.

Details INSTORE magazine and The SMART Jewelry Show are seeking applicants to compete in INSTORE's Bench Pressure Challenge competition held April 18 - 20, 2015, at Chicago's Navy Pier.

A total of eight contestants will be selected; four each for the All-Around Challenge and the CAD Challenge. Each will receive round-trip airfare to The SMART Jewelry Show and two nights accommodation at the show hotel.

Taking place in the new Bench Challenge Pavilion on the floor of The SMART Show, this Stuller-sponsored competition highlights the expertise and craftsmanship required to turn basic ideas into brilliant finished pieces. With overhead monitors giving the audience an up-close view of the action at each bench workstation, as well as industry veteran Mark Loren returning as emcee, these competitions are interactive and informative.

Contestants will be selected based on their education, experience and past work. Bench jewelers interested in participating can apply online before January 28 at:

CAD CHALLENGE

- CAD 1: Saturday, April 18, 10:15am - 12:15pm
- CAD 2: Saturday, April 18, 2pm - 4pm

On Saturday, April 18, the four INSTORE Bench Pressure CAD Challenge contestants will fire up their computers for two tests of their ability to design to a customer's specifications. The work will be judged on creativity, presentation, sales skills and how well the final designs meet the requirements. An overall winner will be determined based on the combined scores of the two events.

ALL-AROUND CHALLENGE

- Setting: Sunday, April 19, 10:15am - 12:15pm
