(Los Angeles, CA) January 22, 2021 -- Pop music duo Tarah Who? releases a new single “Swallow That Pill”. The track is one of eight in their upcoming album, “Exposed”. The duo is composed of front-woman Tarah Carpenter, and drummer/backing vocalist Coralie Hervé.

“Swallow that Pill” Is an upbeat pop, rock track with fast paced tunes. Tarah Who?’s storytelling and vocals in this track will allow listeners to be empathetic to the frustration of a hard worker being unappreciated and taken advantage of.

“Swallow That Pill” inspired Tarah Who? to reflect on coworkers that worked hard everyday, only to get backlash and harassed by managers or bosses. Tarah Who? believe that having responsibilities and paying bills doesn't mean we should accept every situation.

Tarah says, “I’m really sensitive to things that happen around me, and I love studying psychology and human behavior. When I write, I seek to process personal stories and news stories through these perspectives, but in a way that’s relatable to everyone.”

Following the single of “Swallow That Pill” the duo put together a music video where someone enters a break room to let out frustration on a long day of working.
