Perditio Releases Collaborative Debut Album “Delectably Dark”

“Delectably Dark” Available Now on All Streaming Platforms

(Los Angeles, CA) May 7, 2021 -- Perditio released their debut house album “Delectably Dark” made by a collective of artists from all over the world.

“Delectably Dark” fills listeners with high energy afro, tech, deep, and bass house sounds. The 11-track album is a compilation of songs and artists highlighting the uniqueness of the house genre.

Perditio is determined not to let the genre be boxed in by any means. Hence the blend of house genres, groundbreaking producers, and cross continental studios it took to create the masterpiece album.

While each slice of “Delectably Dark” is unique, listeners will also hear commonalities that bond the artists and genre of House into a true solid force of nature.

“We recognize our platform could be used to build unforgettable experiences with artists that help them break into larger markets. We curate the fun. The energy we want to convey to our audience in every interaction is: Perditio is where the fun lives. When it's all about the music, you build a community of people that can always find the fun.” - Perditio
