Gold Souls releases debut track, “Heavy Lies the Crown”

(Los Angeles, CA) August 4th, 2021 – Talented brothers Dré (Vocals) & Ry (Drums) Tempfer along with guitarist Danny Goldfarb released “Heavy Lies The Crown” on August 4th. In the 30 minutes Dré wrote and recorded the vocals, the song came to embody dark themes spanning from power, corruption, and deception. The instruments are lush, heavy, and melodic with catchy vocal runs, soaring hooks, and a power scream straight out of the 80s. The video release follows and explores the song's dark themes with lush red & blue lighting, deep black spaces, and Stanley Kubrick inspired edits.

“Heavy Lies The Crown” is an inspiring track that is ground breaking in the rock scene. Listeners will be compelled to give their full attention immediately sucked into the energy and originality.

Gold Souls is composed of two brothers Dré (Vocals) & Ry (Drums) Tempfer who have been playing music with guitarist Danny Goldfarb since 2014. From metal bands to alternative projects, the three have explored music and grown together for over 7 years. After a few years apart, Danny began working out of his home studio in New York and soon afterwards the three had 17 demos completed. Gold Souls believes rock culture needs new charismatic figures that understand its roots as well as current sounds and together they decided to make ground breaking music and bring rock back to life.
