About Missing-Nin

Missing-Nin hails from Lagos, Nigeria, but currently resides in Los Angeles, California. It was in preschool that he picked up the snare and started playing music. Soon afterward, he took a liking to the trumpet and later the piano. Appreciating music at an early age, he embraced the power of sound crediting his work with FL Studio as enhancing his love for making beats. As a highly acclaimed composer, Missing-Nin has been making plenty of music for his audience and is eager to release his creative work across multiple streaming platforms every Friday until the end of 2021. Whether you have been following him from the beginning or a new listener, Missing-Nin’s latest tracks are guaranteed to create a presence in the music industry and set the stage for his new album in February 2022.
