

Fondation Louis Vuitton, Abbaye du Mont Saint-Michel, Musée Grévin, Crazy Horse Paris and Open Tour Paris were chosen as the best venues in France

On Tuesday evening the 20th November, CEO of Tiqets Luuc Elzinga and Regional Director Olivier Roure presented The Remarkable Venue Awards 2019 in Paris. The above venues were recognized for consistently delivering outstanding visitor experiences, and the evening marked another successful opportunity for Tiqets to show their appreciation for these ongoing efforts.

The annual multi-city ceremony shines the spotlight on some of the most special venues around the world. Kicking off in Paris on the scenic River Seine, the evening celebrated the top venues in France, distributing awards based on criteria such as digital ticketing facilities, instant delivery of tickets, direct mobile entrance, last-minute booking availability, popularity, and most importantly, how customers reviewed their experience of each venue.

This year's edition featured strong performances by previous winners including the Fondation Louis Vuitton and Crazy Horse Paris, as well as exciting new partners such as the Musée Jacquemart-André.

Luuc Elzinga, CEO of Tiqets: "It's always a pleasure to be in Paris, one of the first cities we launched. We're proud that in the four years since we launched, we have already helped more than 1 million visitors enjoy Parisian Culture. The Remarkable Venue Awards is a great moment for us to show our appreciation to our partners".
