Amsterdam, 19 October, 2020 – Tiqets, a world leading online ticketing platform for museums and attractions, is offering a free private tour for Halloween of the famous Bran Castle, the inspiration for Dracula's Castle. This exclusive experience will also be broadcast as the headliner of Tiqets' online Festival of Fright on October 30th, which also features a murder mystery with Madame Tussauds and a monster show at Warwick Castle, so that people worldwide can participate in the spooky shenanigans.

On Friday October 30th, Tiqets is hosting the Festival of Fright, which offers people multiple ways to experience Halloween against the most creepy and haunted settings:

- Win a private tour of Dracula's Castle in Romania
- Join the FREE virtual scare-a-thon of online live experiences with Dracula's Castle, Warwick Castle, and Madame Tussauds
- Enter to win FREE tickets to safely experience these Halloween attractions and more near you in person worldwide

Win a private tour of Dracula's Castle

Tiqets is offering two winners four tickets each for a private tour of Dracula's Castle in Romania the night before Halloween.

The 14th-century castle in Bran, Romania is the inspiration behind Bram Stoker's infamous tale of Count Dracula. Set atop a misty mountain, surrounded by a treacherous looking forest and sporting an eerie atmosphere, even a far-off sighting of the castle will send shivers down the spine. In the private tour, competition winners will get to wander the castle's candlelit corridors and experience first-hand the dark and ghostly rooms that inspired a tale about a cape-wearing prince with a taste for human blood. As if that wasn't creepy enough, the tour will include a visit to the dungeons where the dastardly Vlad the Impaler was imprisoned... Did anyone else just get the heebie jeebies?

The castle in Bran is a special and unique place where the imagination can run wild. With a reputation as the home of Count Dracula and a history stretching back 600 years, the castle is an alluring place. We're fortunate to receive more than a million visitors each year, and that number is growing. Being part of the Tiqets Festival of Fright allows us to continue welcoming visitors, both online and offline, and to offer our visitors something new and different – even during these challenging times.
