Recap Day 10 @ Mercedes-Benz FashionWeek Amsterdam

13 JULY 2015, AMSTERDAM

SUMMARY

Politics on the catwalk? That happened yesterday during the Political Catwalk show, where young designers presented their joint collection. Their designs were inspired by their views on politics and democracy.

Politics and fashion merged for the night during the Political Calwalk show. Young designers presented their collections inspired by politics and democracy.

Women's wear doesn't necessarily have to be either powerful or feminine, both styles can be combined as AMWESTEN proved with the presentation of their collection hosted by Vodafone Fashion LAB PRO. AMWESTEN successfully combined two seemingly opposites by using plenty of folded details and movement.

Tailor & Elbaz oozed edginess, sexiness and femininity, by adding a touch of silver and gold. This was exactly the message the designer duo conveyed through their S / S 2016 collection.

Susana Bettencourt started her career as a designer with a focus on knitwear and dreamy lace dresses. Nowadays, she effortlessly uses digital techniques resulting in a new collection filled with modern jackets and prints as was shown during her show hosted Vodafone Fashion LAB PRO.

Monique Collignon Light Couture met everyone's expectations: Elegant and striking pieces dominated the catwalk. The last show of the 10th day of the Mercedes-Benz FashionWeek Amsterdam turned out to be truly breathtaking.

Zalando presents 10 Days Downtown closed with 'Fashion meets Theatre' at one of the trendiest hotspots of Amsterdam: Pilek. The live fashion performance by FERNANDA FERNANDES and video artist LIAO FAN made for a truly spectacular ending. During the 23rd edition of the Mercedes-Benz FashionWeek, Zalando organised inspiring and accessible events throughout the city of Amsterdam.
