pr.co partners up with PR Lab, EVBox and Everon for its next community event

Amsterdam — February 25, 2020

After three successful breakfast sessions for Amsterdam's experienced heads of communications, spokespeople and PR officers, PR Lab and pr.co are back with another quarterly community breakfast. This time, we have been invited by EVBox and Everon in their beautiful office in EDGE Olympic in Amsterdam.

For this edition on March 6, discussions during the breakfast will evolve around the topics of crisis communications and reputation management. We'll get the chance to share use cases and experience around bad press and PR backlashes.

While our bi-monthly meetups are open to anyone, our breakfast are invite-only. If you'd like to be considered for this event or future events - please send an email to Sjors Mahler.
