SUMMARY

PressDoc introduces 14-day trial period. Create an account and try out for free one of the subscription plans. All PressDoc features are available in the trial period (including PressList). No credit card required in order to claim the trial.

We've seen a growing interest in PressDoc, and our inbox and live chat are filled with questions about our service. Thus, we decided to offer a 14-day free trial to every new user. In this period you can publish releases and use all features available with one of our monthly plans, including press release customization and PressList. You can claim your trial now, without any credit card details required.

The free trial is part of the complete redesign of our payment system. The PressDoc monthly subscription comes now in 3 different plans, for every type of business. Depending on your needs, you can choose between the:

- 'Expand Plan' (5 PressRooms, 75 releases per month, 5,000 emails sent through PressList and 15 users that can be added to the PressRoom)
- 'Grow Plan' (1 PressRoom, 10 press release per month, 750 emails sent through PressList and support for 5 users)
- 'Start Plan' (1 PressRoom, 2 press releases per month, 150 emails and support for 2 users).

Subscriptions can be canceled anytime and purchased with all major currencies (euro, US dollar, pound). No long-term contracts are involved either.

At PressDoc, we also offer an unique money-back guarantee. You can refund yourself within the first month of your subscription. No questions asked.

Extra PressRooms can be added to your subscription for just €22,50/$29/£19 each. These PressRooms are free until your next billing date. All running subscriptions are left unchanged.
