

Chordify in the top 5,000 of biggest websites worldwide

Press release - Groningen, April 16th 2018

According to Alexa, Chordify belongs to the top 5,000 of the biggest websites worldwide. The web analytics service puts Chordify at place 4,901 in the world ranking list, that counts all active websites. Which is around 200 million at the time of writing.

Alexa ranks the sites on metrics like the number of pageviews, the duration of page visits, the amount of linked sites and search traffic statistics.

Chordify's entry into the top 5,000 illustrates the exponential growth that the company has gone through in the last five years.

The Chordify WebApp has been online since January 2013. Since then the company has welcomed more than 100 million unique visitors. As of today millions of songs have been chordified, and over a million people have registered to the service.

Chordify is an online music service that transforms music from YouTube, SoundCloud or your private collection into chords. The service recognises chords automatically from the audio signal and visualises them in a simple and intuitive player.

Alexa was founded in 1996 and is a worldwide pioneer in the area of web analytics. With their comprehensive experience Alexa has developed itself into one of the most robust and precise web analytics services in the world.

ABOUT CHORDIFY

[Dutch version below]

Chordify is an online music service, made for and by music enthusiasts, that transforms music from YouTube, Deezer, SoundCloud, or your private collection into chords. The service automatically recognizes chords from the audio signal, and aligns them to the music in a simple and intuitive player for guitar, piano, and ukulele.

The Chordify web app has been up and running since January 2013. Since then, the company has grown steadily and organically, in total welcoming over 100 million unique visitors to the platform. To date, 8 million songs have been chordified by users and 1,400,000 people have registered to the service.

Over the course of its 5-year existence Chordify received a lot of international acclaim, winning the Dutch Pitch Session at the Northside Festival in New York in 2014 and the San Francisco MusicTech Summit Startup competition in 2015. They were also selected to pitch during The Next Web Conference in New York and were showcased during the SXSW Festival in Austin, TX.
