SUMMARY

TIFTON, Ga. (July 18, 2017) – Kim Shiver has been named the community liaison of Legacy Village of Tifton and its two sister communities serving Moultrie and Thomasville. She says our company "has a great reputation of taking great care of the local seniors."

TIFTON, Ga. (July 18, 2017) – Kim Shiver has been named the community liaison of Legacy Village of Tifton and its two sister communities serving Moultrie and Thomasville. In addition to the Tifton, GA senior living facility, Shiver will serve as the area marketer for Legacy Village at Park Regency in Moultrie, Ga. and Legacy Village at Plantation Manor in Thomasville, Ga.

In this position, Shiver will work with all three Legacy Village facilities to build relationships with community partners and help advise interested prospects.

Shiver received her bachelors of business administration in marketing from Valdosta State University and has many years of experience in sales and marketing.

“This company has a great reputation of taking great care of the local seniors. I've always heard positive things about the facilities and when I've visited, and I always notice the smiles on the residents' faces. That's something I can be proud to stand behind,” Shiver said.

“I have quickly been impressed with Kim Shiver and her ability to grow relationships in numerous communities. She has a caring heart for the generation that we serve. We are so excited as she begins her journey with our Legacy Village communities in South Georgia,” Bryan Cook, COO of Legacy Senior Living, the parent company, said.

“It brings me so much joy to help those in need find a solution that allows a son or daughter to rest well at night; knowing that Mom or Dad is getting the watchful oversight that they need. I am very excited to join the Legacy team and can't wait to start getting to know each of these communities better,” Shiver said.
