ROME, Ga. (November XX, 2015) – Renaissance Marquis has been recognized as "Rome's Best Senior Living Community" in the News-Tribune's 2015 Reader's Choice Awards, considered one of Northwest Georgia's highest honors.

"Our family of residents and caregivers are so excited and thankful for this community-wide honor. To win this award two years in a row is such an accomplishment and we are so pleased how Floyd County has affirmed our commitment to local seniors with this incredible honor," says Jerry Justice, Executive Director of Renaissance Marquis.

"It's always been our mission to serve Rome's 'greatest generation' with honor, respect, faith and integrity. And every member of our team takes pride in serving with the highest level of care and compassion that you'll find anywhere. We feel blessed to be an integral part of Rome's senior care community, and we consider our caregiving role to be a high calling," says Bryan Cook, Senior Vice President of Operations for Legacy Senior Services, Renaissance Marquis' parent company.

Renaissance Marquis has been under management of Cleveland, Tenn.-based Legacy Senior Services since 2003.
