

Weenect chosen by Maroc Telecom as its offer of Kids tracker

Info Morocco | Published on: June 27, 2016

Summary Weenect, company specialist of the “family geolocalisation” by GPS was chosen by Maroc Telecom as its offer of localization of the children. “Smart Kids” will be available in te shops of the operator from June 2016.

Details The “Smart Kids” concept

The « Smart Kids » concept by Maroc Telecom is a complete service of geolocalisation which allow to look after your remote child. The service includes a GPS tracker for kids and an app on smartphone for parents. They can track the position of their child on a map in real time, without any distance limit and with a 5 meters accuracy.

The tracker is endowed with an SOS button which allows the child to contact his parents in case of emergency. It's also possible to call the child if necessary: microphone and loudspeakers are integrated into the device.

Discreet and light, this GPS tracker has an autonomy of 7 days in intensive use: the tracker communicates its position every 5 minutes while it is stationary and every minute while it is moving. A « low battery » alert is emitted when the level of battery reaches 30% and 15%: ideal to never be surprised during a family outing!

Autonomy in a complete safety

The « Smart Kids » concept allows parents to leave more autonomy to their children, while reassuring them on the place where they are. It is possible to configure areas, such as Home or School, and to receive a notification when the child enters or leaves the zone. He can so be more independent, in complete safety.

This service is available from the Weenect application (Android and IOS) and from the web-app “My Weenect” available from any terminal equipped with Internet.
