

Savedo wins BankingCheck Award 2017 as Best Investment Market Platform

Berlin, 2017/05/18 - The European financial investment platform Savedo has won the BankingCheck Award 2017 as the Best Investment Market Platform. In the competition for the customer-driven award, Savedo was able to push against numerous market players from the FinTech sector.

As a highlight of the Banking & Insurance Summit 2017, the annual BankingCheck and ekomi Awards were presented yesterday evening for the sixth time at the Spreespeicher in Osthafen, Berlin. The well-known evaluation forums award representatives from the financial and insurance sector each year in a total of 47 categories. The winner is the best average score after a four-month voting period. With an average of 4.9 of 5.0 points, Savedo achieved first place in the "Investment Market Platform" category for 2017. The financial portal was rated equally well in the two relevant criteria "Service, Consulting & Support" as well as "Banking & Processes". The award was received by Savedo's Managing Director Björn Jüngerkes.

"Satisfied customers are the most important prerequisite for successful business. Therefore, customer evaluations provide invaluable feedback on the quality of our product range. We regard the award as a positive signal and an incentive to continue providing financial products and top-notch service. "

— Björn Jüngerkes, Managing Director of Savedo
