

Renaissance Assisted Living Recognizes Two Caregivers on National Nurses Week

STANARDSVILLE, Va. (June 14, 2018) – The two-member nursing team at Renaissance Assisted Living of Greene County was recognized on National Nurses Week, May 6 to 12, with the gifts of a new Littmann® Stethoscope, a personal note and a bouquet of flowers at each one’s nursing station in appreciation of their dedicated service.

National Nurses Week, an initiative of the American Nurses Association, recognizes the significant contributions of nurses to the health and wellbeing of others. The week concludes with a special day in remembrance of Florence Nightingale, the founder of modern nursing.

“Our nurses are the backbone of our care for our residents. We want our nurses to know how much the Renaissance Assisted Living of Greene County team, residents and family members appreciate all of their dedicated work to serving the greatest generation with excellence,” executive director of Renaissance Assisted Living of Greene County, Amber Ralls, said.

The nurses recognized were: Sharonda Hawkins, LPN, and Beth Murphy, LPN.

“We could not provide the highest standard of care without our team of nurses. We wanted to express our gratitude for each of our nurses in a memorable way. They deserve to be celebrated, and we are glad that we are able to take the time to celebrate them,” said Melissa Boatwright, director of clinical support of Legacy Senior Living.
