2016 Quicken Loans National

Jon Rahm & Jordan Niebrugge sign with TaylorMade-adidas Golf and make PGA Tour debuts at Congressional

Jon Rahm fires an opening 64 (-7) at Congressional

Jon Rahm

Jon Rahm, (@littleJRMaza) the No. 1 golfer in the World Amateur Golf Ranking has officially joined #TeamTaylorMade and the professional ranks. As an Amateur, the long-hitting 21-year-old Spaniard made college golf history when he became first two-time winner of the Ben Hogan Award, an honor rewarded to the top player in college golf. He was also the low-amateur at the 116th U.S. Open finishing inside the top 25.

This week's 2016 Quicken Loans National is Rahm's first event as a pro. He didn't hesitate to shine firing 7 birdies for a Round 1 64, a score good enough for the clubhouse lead after day one.

Rahm reported he had a room full of clubs after testing everything on the market throughout the spring. Unsurprisingly, the driver is what really sold him on joining the team stating, "I tried TaylorMade and I was really impressed with the driver, I really liked the driver. I felt like TaylorMade products could make me the best player I can be, so that's why I chose to go with them." He gamed an M2 driver at Oakmont where he ranked third in driving average (306 yards).

Rahm's Equipment:

- M2 10.5° driver with Aldila Tour Green 75TX shaft
- M1 15° fairway with Aldila Tour Green 75TX

Niebrugge's rise began in the summer of 2013 when he won the Wisconsin Match Play Championship. He followed that up by stringing together a historic amateur winning streak that included victories at the U.S. Amateur Public Links Championship, Wisconsin State Amateur, and Western Amateur.
