

Rod Perry wins 2017 TaylorMade National Championship at Pebble Beach Links

Congratulations to the 2017 TaylorMade National Championship winner Rod Perry from Crane Lakes Golf & Country Club.

Rod Perry, Crane Lakes Golf & Country Club

In an exciting finish, Perry came from behind firing birdies on three out of his last five holes. This included the par 5 18th, to force a playoff against defending champion Andy Mickelson.

In the sudden-death playoff, Perry outlasted Mickelson in the second playoff hole to take home his first TaylorMade National Championship title.
