

Athletics Alberta partnering with online accommodation service StayBilley

EDMONTON, AB (MARCH 30, 2017) – Athletics Alberta and StayBilley today announce their multi-year affiliate partnership effective March 15th.

With this agreement, StayBilley becomes the Official Online Accommodation Service of Athletics Alberta, and its membership. StayBilley will provide members of Athletics Alberta's community needing accommodations the ability to connect with enterprising Hosts across the province and country. StayBilley connects Guests and Hosts who share interests.

StayBilley not only connects people it also gives back to groups, organizations and charities. A portion of each StayBilley booking supports Athletics Alberta's programs, athlete development initiatives, and more.

Athletics Alberta's President, Linda Blade said, "We think StayBilley is a perfect option for athletes, coaches, friends and family looking for a place to stay when traveling for competitions, or for any reason. We're asking Albertans to list their extra rooms on StayBilley and welcome members of the Athletics Alberta community into their homes."

StayBilley is a great option for local sports fans wanting to meet and help athletes from out-of-town. Visitors will search for Athletics Alberta-tagged properties and save money on accommodation. Local hosts benefit financially and meet athletes from throughout the province, Canada and the world.

"We're excited about Athletics Alberta becoming a StayBilley affiliate," said Barbara Jones, Founder/CEO of StayBilley. "As a Canadian start-up, and we're looking forward to seeing how our partnership will both serve and strengthen the Alberta sports community."
