Beirut sky filled with Oliva smoke

Fidel Cigars and Oliva Cigars organising the first exclusive Sunset Ash event in Beirut 23rd of July 2019

Tuesday night, the 23rd of July the Lebanon company Fidel Cigars owned by Mr. Danny Ibrahim organised in cooperation with J. Cortès & Oliva cigars the Sunset Ash night in Beirut with exclusively Oliva cigars.

The event held place at the beautiful sunset bar 'Beit Misk', one of the most beautiful and exclusive area's in Beirut, capital of Lebanon with an amazing view over Beirut and the sea sunset. More than 120 pre-booked people attended the Fidel & Oliva event and enjoyed a generous number of 4 Oliva cigars (Serie V & O). The event was graced with a live band and well-known Lebanese singer, Nour Yamouny.

At the end of the evening, DJ REA B took over and made a spectacular end to a fantastic event. While watching to the incredible family story of how the families Vandermarliere and Oliva cigars found each other on the big screens the many cigar lovers from Lebanon enjoyed the music, delicious Lebanese food and great Oliva cigars. During the event a raffle was organised with Limited Editions Oliva and St. Dupont Lighters.

Thank you to Danny Ibrahim and his very skilled team to let this event happen and the many clients and friends attending this one of a kind event. An event with an enormous resonance in the entire Middle East and a real tribute to welcome the new world cigars in Lebanon and the middle-east.
