DOCOMO PACIFIC revitalizes Saipan's largest and most utilized public pavilion.

Gualo Rai, Saipan (April 3, 2020) – DOCOMO PACIFIC, regional leader in innovation, telecommunications & entertainment, revitalizes Saipan's largest and most utilized public pavilion.

At DOCOMO PACIFIC we truly believe that corporate responsibility extends beyond the vital telecommunication products and services we offer. Amid the global health crisis, our commitment to our community remains.

Being that the Minachom Atdao pavilion provides a beautiful space for our people to gather in, from corporate functions like the Saipan Chamber of Commerce Corporate Challenge to island events extended to guest abroad like the Saipan Tagaman Triathlon, we did not hesitate when the opportunity to contribute our resources was presented. From community events to family celebrations and fundraisers, our Better Together promise serves as the foundation for it all. While gatherings are temporarily prohibited to stop the spread of COVID-19, one day, the sun will set on the pandemic and our people will be able to happily reunite in this beautiful space again. Our resources were dedicated to ensure that the space is safe and ready for that day.

"We will always remain committed to our community that we serve, as they have remained committed to us. Our islands are small, but our hearts are big and when we come together, we can make a big difference in our community. In these most difficult times, let this work of progress encourage us all that brighter days are to come and that we are not in this alone."

— Pauline Johnson, General Manager, DOCOMO PACIFIC

The 1 month revitalization and repair of the Minachom Atdao consisted of the removal and scrapping of damaged paint job, a totally new applied coat of paint throughout the entire structure, counter re-tiling, restoration and re-pouring of all cracks and planters box and a added recycling garbage disposal in partnership with the Micronesian Island Nature Alliance (MINA).

In times of uncertainty, DOCOMO PACIFIC remains committed to the people we serve and will continue to find ways to promote our beautiful islands and its people. The Marianas will prevail once again because together, we're stronger.
