DOCOMO PACIFIC joins GNOC and Olympic Hopefuls in an inspiring community message

Tamuning, Guam (May 7, 2020) – DOCOMO PACIFIC, regional leader in innovation, telecommunications, & entertainment, in their capacity as Official Telecommunications Sponsor of the Guam National Olympic Committee (GNOC) and Team Guam for the Summer Olympic Games has released a series of video messages to inspire the community through this time of great change.

As an official sponsor, DOCOMO PACIFIC will be helping in the continuing development of our athletes and their Olympic dreams through the Guam National Olympic Committee. Sports play a huge role in our island’s community. Sports, specifically the Olympic Games, unites us, fosters character, teaches respect for others and calls us forward in the pursuit of excellence. We’re honored to help Guam’s athletes in their dream to compete in the Olympics and promote our island’s culture as well. On March 24, 2020, the IOC made the official decision to delay the Summer Olympics in light of the global pandemic.

We have recently aired three TV commercials featuring three Olympic hopefuls, Jacinta Sumagaysay (Weightlifting) and Mia-Lahnee and Rckaela Aquino (Wrestling), as well as our cultural ambassadors Inetnon Gefpã’Go. The key message is that their time to showcase their strength with the world is coming, but let’s rise together as we show our support by staying safe, staying healthy, and supporting each other.

“In making this announcement we are proud to have the athletes join us in recognizing our front liners. They have courageously shown strength and determination, so that we can continue to rise together.”

— Roderick Boss, President and CEO of DOCOMO PACIFIC
