DOCOMO PACIFIC supports PBS with a text-to-give campaign

Tamuning, Guam (October 28, 2020) – DOCOMO PACIFIC, regional leader in innovation, telecommunications, & entertainment, partners with PBS Guam KGTF Ch.12 in launching a text-to-give campaign to support local educational programming.

PBS Guam KGTF Ch.12 (“PBS Guam”) proudly provides 12 full hours of educational kids programming daily. Being a non-profit, the station relies on donations from their supporters. Now more than ever, the station is seeking creative ways to engage its supporters to assist in maintaining their mission of providing quality educational programming to the community.

From now through January 31, 2021, DOCOMO PACIFIC customers are able to donate to PBS Guam through text. To give today, text “PBS” to 4357 (HELP) for a donation of $10. 100% of the funds will be donated directly to PBS Guam.

"At PBS Guam we work hard to bring educational and quality local programming to our viewers as well as DOCOMO PACIFIC's TV subscribers. At the onset of this COVID pandemic, we got to work quickly to support our community by launching the following: 1) PBS University with the Department of Education, 2) PBS Learning Media - an online platform that provides valuable learning resources to children, parents and educators at home, and 3) Our new PBS Kids 24/7 channel. All of this content is accessible with DOCOMO PACIFIC services. I thank the team at DOCOMO PACIFIC for this valuable partnership and look forward to continue servicing the community of Guam

— Ina Carillo, General Manager, PBS Guam KGTF Ch.12
