Tamuning, Guam (December 9, 2020) – DOCOMO PACIFIC, regional leader in innovation, telecommunications, & entertainment, offers personalized bundle plans for customers in Guam.

The modern home revolves around strong and reliable connections. Those connections enable families to work and learn from home, to bond over family-friendly TV shows, and to live full lives on-the-go. Taking up a combination of services is often called a “bundle”. Bundles are often viewed as expensive or ill-suited. Until now...

DOCOMO PACIFIC invites customers to say goodbye to unfriendly, complicated, and expensive bundles that lack flexibility to meet their needs.
