DOCOMO PACIFIC donates Aura Air units to Saipan's Hospital

Gualo Rai, Saipan (January 31, 2021) – DOCOMO PACIFIC, regional leader in innovation, telecommunications, & entertainment, donates three Aura Air units to the Commonwealth Healthcare Corporation (“CHCC”).

Since the launch of our partnership with Aura Air in November 2020, DOCOMO PACIFIC remains committed to providing a healthier environment in the Marianas. Aura Air smart filters have been installed at the Guam Memorial Hospital, restaurants, homes, and we're excited to add the CHCC to the list. Providing clean air is an extra layer of protection and restores confidence knowing you can trust the air you are breathing.

“We remain committed to supporting these efforts for the betterment of our people, but most importantly the continuance of normalcy and a healthy and safe CNMI. We are fortunate to provide our resources as a responsible corporate citizen.”

— Pauline Johnson, CNMI General Manager, DOCOMO PACIFIC

“The CHCC is very grateful for the Aura Air donated by DOCOMO PACIFIC. Since the height of the COVID-19 Pandemic, everyone has been making adjustments and modifications towards operations flow, equipment and even policies to protect the CNMI community. As a result, access to new equipment has become more available to best compliment the recommended adjustments and modifications like air purification and disinfection. This donation of the Aura Air will be an excellent addition to efforts in safeguarding the health and safety of the CNMI community at CHCC. Si Yu’us Ma’ase DOCOMO PACIFIC! We are grateful and appreciative of your continuous support towards the health and wellbeing of the CNMI.

— Esther Muna, Chief Executive Officer, CHCC
