Twotone is at Eurobike. Here's what we are doing. Where do we meet?

Amsterdam/Friedrichshafen - Eurobike is just around the corner and I know I write it each time but this will be our best yet! We're traveling with three people from the team to the Bodensee. We made a sweet overview for you to check out below.

First of all, Wahoo Fitness is launching a big new product on Wednesday morning 10AM at their booth B3-504. It's going to be spectacular as ever and shouldn't be missed. SPENGLER is bringing their new coloured wheels to the show as well as the first tangible versions of their 700c tri-blade wheel. Ampler is bringing their latest bikes for you to ride and talk to them about the bikes and SILCA's CEO Josh Poertner is on side to talk business.

We tried to make it as easy as possible for you to either talk to one of us or with one of our clients, or both. Simply click the link behind one of our names corresponding with the client(s) you'd like to meet and you can easily pick a time and location.

Have fun at the show and hopefully see you there!
