LOTTO DSTNY WILL BE PACKING ITS BAGS WITH PRO'S WORLD-CLASS ACCESSORIES

A new two-year partnership, will see Lotto Dstny riders and mechanics use PRO saddle bags, multi-tools and tire levers in all aspects of their racing and training

UCI Pro Team Lotto Dstny will have full confidence and trust in their tools having selected PRO Bikegear (PRO) as their supplier of choice to equip its team with PRO's top-of-the-line saddle bags, multi-tools, tire levers and other accessories. The Belgian-based professional team announce a two-year-deal with PRO today.

"We are very happy with this new partnership. PRO is a big name in the cycling world and their interest in our team is a big honor for us," said Lotto Dstny's Chief Business Officer, Yana Seel. "Our riders and mechanics were very enthusiastic about PRO's products when we announced this partnership to them. They were all positive because they know we are getting the best equipment for our riders and mechanics. In return, we will do everything we can to get the results, providing PRO the visibility it deserves."

With its first victory on European soil at last weekend's punchy one-day Clàssica Comunitat Valenciana, the Lotto Dstny squad can be expected to tackle not only all the major races this year, but will also keep themselves, their bike and tools ticking over while out training with a selection of PRO saddle bags – should any of the team riders feel like a mini-bike packing adventure!

Lotto Dstny's Harry Sweeny is very positive about the new products that will help him get back on the road as soon as possible: "Whether it is a flat or just a small adjustment you need to make on your bike during a ride, the PRO saddlebag, multi-tool, tire levers and pump, will allow you to solve it all on the road.

"You hope to use the tools as little as possible, but when it is necessary, you can trust PRO to have good and reliable equipment. With PRO, we will have all of that in one convenient saddlebag."

PRO has been providing world-class products to professional teams at the pinnacle of the sport for over 30 years. Inspired by the performances of the highest-level riders, offering ultra-high-performance tools and accessories, even during the most punishing conditions, comes naturally to the group.

PRO's Marketing Manager, Alexa Cunningham added: "We're excited to begin our partnership with Lotto Dstny for the next two seasons. PRO has come on board to support the entire team, where it matters most – from the mechanics right through to the riders themselves – with our pumps, tools and full line-up of high-quality accessories. Each of our products are the result of tireless research, development and are designed to make your life easier."

"We are looking forward to seeing the riders and mechanics being empowered by our products, whether on the bike during races, during the countless hours spent training, or in the workshop. We want the entire Lotto Dstny Team to get the most out of their bikes and wish them the very best for the season ahead," she concluded.

PRO products carry a lifetime warranty; based on a 10-year expected lifetime.
