BUX Zero, Europe's Fastest-Growing Investing App, Becomes Ireland's First Zero-commission Neobroker

BUX continues to scale across Europe adding Ireland to the growing list of countries where the next generation of investor can start doing more with their money

AMSTERDAM, NL — June 20, 2021 — BUX, Europe's fastest-growing neobroker, has officially launched its zero-commission investing app, BUX Zero in Ireland, making it the first exclusively mobile platform to offer investing in the country.

Ireland will be the sixth country where BUX has launched since it's inaugural release in the Netherlands in September 2019. BUX recently announced an $80 million (€67 million) funding round. With increasing appetite across Europe for simpler ways to start investing, particularly with a younger generation, BUX is focusing efforts on scaling internationally.

Yorick Naeff, CEO of BUX, said, "At BUX, our goal is to create a new, more equitable financial future where anyone has the opportunity to invest and put their money to work. As Europe's financial services landscape undergoes rapid change, BUX Zero is giving consumers more options when choosing what to do with their money. Providing an avenue for direct investment, BUX Zero is making commission-free investing accessible for both first time and existing investors by allowing them to easily invest in companies they know and believe in."

Regulated by the Dutch Authority for Financial Markets (Autoriteit Financiële Markten - AFM), and with over 500,000 clients across Europe, BUX Zero has established itself as Europe's go-to neobroker and is currently available in the Netherlands, Germany, Austria, France, Belgium and now Ireland with plans to expand further across Europe in 2021.
