

VANMOOF BIKES by PURPLE

for this issue of purple, we asked four artists to reimagine vanmoof's electric hybrid bicycles as a personal accessory for the future.

vanmoof's high-tech minimalist bikes — fitted with an integrated power source and automated gears — are revolutionizing everyday mobility: an ultra-smooth, fashionable, and modern way to navigate the city.

TOP: MATHIAS KISS,
SANS90DEGRÉS,
WOOD AND MIRROR
BOTTOM: MATHIAS KISS,
LIQUID MIRROR
ALL ARTWORK COPYRIGHT
ADAGP, PARIS, 2022

MATHIAS by KISS

the paris-based artist/artisan and decorator meticulously silver-plated his cosmic electric hybrid bike.

PHOTO BY OLIVIER ZAHM

TOP: MATHIAS KISS,
SANS90DEGRÉS, WOOD AND MIRROR, 51 X 37 1/2 INCHES
BOTTOM: MATHIAS KISS,
LIQUID MIRROR
ALL ARTWORK COPYRIGHT
ADAGP, PARIS, 2022

by NINA KRAVITZ

the moscow-based electronic music producer, dj, and singer personalized her sonic black bike with stickers from her record label.

PHOTO BY OLIVIER ZAHM

SHEILA SINGLE, STYLE
MANVI BHATNAGAR, STYLIST'S
ASSISTANT

YELLOW STRASS-EMBROIDERED
NET TOP AMI ALEXANDRE
MATTIUSSI

ANDRÉ SARAIVA, PAINTINGS, LEFT TO RIGHT: MR.A SMILE PINK 4, ACRYLIC AND SPRAY PAINT ON CANVAS, MR.A'S, ACRYLIC AND SPRAY PAINT ON CANVAS, YOU AND ME, ACRYLIC AND SPRAY PAINT ON CANVAS

by ANDRÉ SARAIVA

the street and graffiti artist bombed and tagged his electric bike to create a moving extension of his paris studio and color palette.

PHOTO BY OLIVIER ZAHM

the new york-based japanese nail artist miho kawajiri, a.k.a. mei, kawaiï-fied her fantasy ride.

PHOTO BY BELLA NEWMAN