

Boijmans Next Door

During the forthcoming renovation and modernisation of Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen, the collection remains visible and accessible in Rotterdam. Some 500 masterpieces will be displayed in eleven special exhibitions at eight neighbouring institutions under the title Boijmans Next Door. The exhibitions in these guest venues will create encounters between Boijmans' collection and that of its neighbours.

1. 8 February 2018 – 12 May 2019
Kunsthal Rotterdam: 'Picasso on Paper'
The Kunsthal kicks off the Boijmans Next Door project with exquisite, colourful prints by the famous Spanish artist Pablo Picasso.
2. 16 March 2019 – 17 January 2021
Tax and Customs Museum: 'Forged Together: Masters in Silver'
A selection of Dutch silver goblets, tobacco boxes and salt cellars are exhibited alongside old master paintings in which the same objects are depicted.
3. 16 March 2019 – 22 March 2020
Stedelijk Museum Schiedam: 'Rothko & Me'
How does it feel to be completely alone with Rothko's painting 'Grey, Orange on Maroon, No. 8' from 1960? You can find out for yourself in the exhibition 'Rothko & Me'.
4. 19 March – 1 September 2019
Chabot Museum: 'Branding Rotterdam'
An exhibition about the artists' group 'De Branding' (The Surf), an important link in the development of modern art in the Netherlands in the years 1917-26.
5. 25 May 2019 – 1 September 2019
Kunsthal Rotterdam: 'The Dizzying Imagination of Piranesi'
An exhibition of the work of the Italian artist Giovanni Battista Piranesi, the greatest printmaker of his age and best known for his views of Rome.
6. 9 September 2019 – 28 May 2021
Erasmus Medical Centre: 'Human Appearances – Strength & Vulnerability'
The human body is central both to this institution and to this selection of sculptures, with amongst others Auguste Rodin's Pierre de Wissant.
7. 2 October 2019 – 3 January 2021
Wereldmuseum: 'Remix Rotterdam. Boijmans x Wereldmuseum'
Unknown histories will be revealed in this exciting combination of historical and contemporary design, ethnographic objects and visual art.
8. 7 December 2019 – 29 March 2020
Kunsthal Rotterdam: 'Masterly!'
Painting and drawing are inextricably linked. This is shown in the exhibition 'Masterly' in the Kunsthal. From more than twenty artists from five centuries - from Hendrick Goltzius to Jean-Michel Basquiat - both paintings and drawings are shown.
9. 14 December 2019 - 19 April 2020
Museum Rotterdam: 'Studio Secrets'
This exhibition reveals the studio secrets of six painters who worked in Rotterdam from the seventeenth to the twentieth century, including Pieter de Hooch and Kees van Dongen.

---

Editors' Note

For images, interviews and / or further information please contact:
press officer Sharon Cohen +31(0)6 1188 6879, email: pressoffice@boijmans.nl

10. February - September 2020

Chabot Museum: 'Art Represents Everything'

This exhibition brings together Expressionist artists from around the world, from the pioneers of Expressionism to post-war movements such as CoBrA and Abstract Expressionism.

11. 17 October 2020 - 4 September 2022

Maritiem Museum: 'Maritime Masterpieces'

Art history and maritime history come together in this exhibition of model ships and sublime seascapes from the sixteenth to the twenty-first century.

Boijmans Next Door has been made possible by stichting droom en daad

---

Editors' Note

For images, interviews and / or further information please contact:
press officer Sharon Cohen +31(0)6 1188 6879, email: pressoffice@boijmans.nl