

Komoot Factsheet

- Over 30 million outdoor and cycling enthusiasts all over the world use komoot to find, plan and share adventures.
- Komoot's map, route planner and navigation is available globally.
- The komoot platform is available in German, English, French, Dutch, Italian and Spanish.
- Komoot is available on iOS, Android and on the web (komoot.com), as well as for Apple Watch and Android Wear and Samsung Galaxy watches.
- Komoot is available as a standalone app for Samsung Galaxy watches in the Samsung Store. Find more information here - komoot.com/samsung
- Komoot can be connected to all the most popular GPS devices and offers advanced integrations for Wahoo ELEMNT, Lezyne, Sigma and Hammerhead devices.
- Komoot is also available on Garmin devices with the purpose-built komoot for Garmin IQ app downloadable from the Garmin IQ store.
- Komoot offers e-bike integrations for BOSCH Kyox and Nyon, among others, and can be connected to the Specialized Mission Control app. Find more information here - komoot.com/ebikes
- The komoot platform is divided into two product families, komoot Maps and komoot Premium.
- The komoot app is free to download and use.
- Komoot Maps users can purchase maps for offline navigation.
- The Maps are offered in different packages: a single region at £3.99, a region package at £8.99 and the world package at £29.99. All komoot Maps packages are one-time payments and new users receive a region of their choice for free on sign-up.

- The subscription-based komoot Premium launched in 2019 in response to the demands of a core group of komoot users with specific needs for advanced features such as a multi-day route planner, weather forecasting, sports specific maps and personal collections. Komoot Premium costs £59.99 per year. Find more information here - komoot.com/shop

Accolades

- The komoot app has won numerous awards in the Google Play Store and iTunes, and is consistently ranked no.1 in the German App Store, thanks to its turn-by-turn voice navigation and high quality, topographic offline maps
- In 2021 Komoot was named one of Digital Trends' The best cycling apps for Android and iOS
- In May 2020 the Guardian newspaper recommended komoot as one of the top 5 routing and navigation apps for hiking, running and cycling.
- Bikeradar, Cyclist Magazine & Cycling Weekly all included komoot in their lists of the best cycling apps for 2020

Company Information

Find, plan, and share adventures with komoot. With its easy route planner, shared community knowledge and recommendations, turn-by-turn voice navigation and inspirational content, komoot has become the outdoor app of choice for 19 Million people all over the world. Headquartered in Potsdam, Germany, komoot is home to the largest digital community of outdoor experts in Europe, and proudly supports a growing list of global adventurers including Lael Wilcox, Laurens ten Dam, Mark Beaumont and Jenny Tough. For the more adventurous outdoor enthusiast and cyclist, komoot Premium is aimed at those among its community who wish to 'go further'. Komoot Premium has advanced features such as dynamic on-Tour weather forecasting, a multi-day Tour planner and sports-specific maps. It's komoot's mission to inspire great adventures, making them accessible to all.

For more information, go to komoot.com or follow @komoot on Instagram, Twitter & LinkedIn

PR Contacts

Rob Marshall: rob.marshall@komoot.de / Tel: +44 7977 217038

Download high res images and videos from our newsroom

<http://newsroom.komoot.com>