IT&E warns of fraudulent social media contest

IT&E has discovered that an unknown third party is posing as our organization and sending fraudulent offers to our customers on social media. The fraudulent social media post informs customers they can win a Samsung Galaxy S10 from IT&E Overseas by clicking on an icon.

This message and contest were not sent or approved by IT&E. There is no existing contest or giveaway that coincides with this social media post. All official contests and giveaways are announced on IT&E's official social media pages and website.

To protect their customers, IT&E does not recommend clicking on the icon or link or sharing the post.

For additional questions or information call IT&E Guam at (671) 922-4483 or IT&E CNMI at (670) 682-4483.
