

Festicket named 80th fastest growing company in Europe by FT 1000

Festicket, the world's leading platform for festival experiences, is pleased to announce its position in the FT 1000. The company is ranked 80th out of 1000 of the fastest growing companies in Europe, coming fourth overall in the "Travel & Leisure" category.

The FT 1000, which is now in its third year, is compiled with Statista, and lists the European companies that achieved the highest compound annual growth rate in revenue between 2014 and 2017.

Founded in 2012, Festicket partners with festivals to provide travel packages that combine tickets, accommodation, and transfers in one complete and hassle-free one-stop shop for festival-goers. The company has grown its gross revenue by over +480% since 2015, more than doubling it every year from 2012 up to 2018.

Festicket has had a busy start to 2019 already. After securing $10.5m in funding in November 2018 from investors such as Beringea, a new funding round of $4.6m was announced in early February from Edge Investments. Separately, the company plans to launch its first ever crowdfunding campaign to give investment opportunities to its committed community of festival fans.

Zack Sabban, CEO and co-founder of Festicket, comments: "It's a great feeling to be recognised for our growth by the FT 1000. It just goes to show how much potential the festival industry has, as more and more people choose to spend their money and time on unforgettable experiences like festivals."

"Sales have been up 70% year-on-year and we just had a record-breaking month in February, breaking our all-time record with over €11m gross merchandise value in the shortest month of the year. We have huge plans in the pipeline for the rest of 2019 so watch this space!"

Festicket is the world's largest portal for discovering and booking festival experiences.

Festicket provides fans of live music with a unique, hassle-free, and money-saving service to discover and book tickets & packages for their next festival trip. Working closely with festival partners and suppliers, Festicket packages festival tickets with accommodation, travel, and add-ons to ensure that festival-goers' next live music experience is as simple and enjoyable as possible.

Founded in 2013 by Zack Sabban, Jonathan Younes and Jerome Elfassy, Festicket has quickly grown to be the leading music festival platform with over 1200 music festivals on offer, and a growing community of 2.5m+ festival-goers.

Recently ranked as the UK's 21st fastest-growing technology company by the Sunday Times Tech Track 100, Festicket has seen an annualized sales rise of +224% since 2015 and is on course for another record year in 2018. Festicket has offices in London (HQ), Amsterdam, Berlin, Porto and San Francisco.
