

JBL® Quantum 350 arrives to level up gameplay, wirelessly

Gain the audio advantage and move freely with the latest JBL Quantum headset

London, 02 September, 2021 – Don't let wires hold you back from winning or beating your high score. Meet the JBL Quantum 350 wireless gaming headset. The latest addition to the JBL Quantum Series is designed to bring the competitive advantage of the totally wireless JBL QuantumSOUND Signature to PC gamers and it works with consoles too.

Every sound matters so never miss a moment with lossless 2.4G wireless and 22-hour battery life. For those long gaming sessions, the lightweight memory foam ear cushions will provide ultimate comfort. Need to recharge? Speed charge gives 1 hour playback from a 5-minute burst, and Power & Play allows charging during gameplay, so no need to miss out.

From the quietest footsteps to the loudest laser blasts, JBL's QuantumSOUND Signature and the immersive JBL QuantumSURROUND puts you in the center of every scene. The DISCORD-certified JBL Quantum 350 also has a detachable, directional voice-focus boom mic so no matter how crazy the action gets, other players can always hear calls for backup or to celebrate your back-to-back wins!

"Gaming is moving further into the mainstream with gamers requiring enhanced flexibility in their set up. By introducing the JBL Quantum 350 to our existing JBL Quantum series of headsets, we meet this need and deliver outstanding JBL sound and build quality with a feature set that is unmatched," said Dave Rogers, President, HARMAN Lifestyle Division. "A fully wireless headset lets gamers move around when playing, switching from PC to PS5, or getting further away from their devices but still hearing and feeling every sound."

JBL Quantum 350 is available from September for £89.99
