

ServeTek has acquired Professional Kitchen KK-Service Oy, together with its two sister companies, Karose Oy and SKR Varaosat Oy. These acquisitions further strengthen the Group's presence in Finland and represent an important step in the Group's strategy to expand its presence across the Nordic region. With Professional Kitchen KK-Service Oy and its sister companies joining ServeTek, the group gains additional technical expertise, broader service capacity, and an enhanced product offering, enabling it to deliver even greater value to customers across the region.

About ServeTek Group:

ServeTek is a Nordic specialist group that brings together the region's leading companies within professional kitchens, foodservice, and hygiene. ServeTek unites local entrepreneurs across the Nordics, forming a strong platform. The Group includes well-established companies with deep industry expertise, strong local presence, and long experience.

About Professional Kitchen KK-Service Oy:

Professional Kitchen KK-Service Oy and its sister companies specialize in full-service installation and maintenance of professional kitchen refrigeration and heating equipment, expert spare-parts sales, and large-scale kitchen installations. Their customer sectors include, among others shipping companies, hospitals, hotels, and restaurants.

Deal team

Oaklins Finland acted as the financial advisor to the ServeTek group, founded by Aspira.

"The Oaklins team helped Aspira Partners to find the right Finnish entrepreneur partners to join ServeTek and, with a professional approach, supported the building of trust between the parties."

- Isak Abrams, Investment Director Aspira Partners

“The Oaklins team is pleased and honored to continue supporting the ServeTek Group as it strengthens its position in the Finnish market.”

— Timo Brandstack, Partner Oaklins Finland
