

RECOGNIZING 15 YEARS OF DEPENDABLE SERVICE FOR EUROPEAN OPERATORS AT OUR PRAGUE SERVICE CENTER

▲ Recognizing 15 years of dependable service for European operators at our Prague Service Center

Textron Aviation is celebrating 15 years of supporting customers at its Prague Service Center, a key location within the company's global service network. Located at Prague International Airport, the service center was established to meet the evolving needs of operators across Europe, where approximately 1,700 turbine aircraft are supported within the region. With company-owned service centers in Prague, Zurich, Paris, Valencia and Düsseldorf, the network provides factory-direct support close to where customers operate.
