

LYNK & CO INTRODUCES THE 07 GT, A NEW SPORT TOURING MODEL PLANNED FOR EUROPE IN 2027

Gothenburg, Sweden [29 June 2026] – Lynk & Co has unveiled the new Lynk & Co 07 GT in China, marking the brand's first model in a new sport touring category and previewing its planned arrival in Europe in 2027. The European version will feature market-specific specifications, technologies and features developed to meet local regulations and customer expectations.

Designed for drivers seeking a balance between dynamic performance, long-distance comfort and everyday versatility, the 07 GT brings together Lynk & Co's motorsport-inspired DNA with a broader vision of travel-oriented mobility.

The new model draws on Lynk & Co's racing heritage and reflects the brand's ambition to extend driving enjoyment beyond the track. With a focus on design, comfort, intelligent technology and all-scenario travel capabilities, the Lynk & Co 07 GT has been developed as a vehicle for customers who want a more versatile and expressive way to travel.

A New Expression of Sport Touring

With its low, athletic proportions and shooting brake silhouette, the Lynk & Co 07 GT blends the elegance of a grand tourer with the practicality required for everyday use and longer journeys.

The exterior colour palette draws inspiration from iconic natural landscapes, reinforcing the model's adventurous and travel-focused character.

Inside, the 07 GT offers a spacious, driver-focused cabin designed to provide comfort for both daily commuting and longer trips. Premium materials, advanced connectivity and a versatile luggage compartment create an environment that combines practicality with a refined travel experience.

The introduction of the 07 GT will further expand Lynk & Co's European product portfolio, which today consists of the plug-in hybrid Lynk & Co 01, the fully electric Lynk & Co 02, and the long range plug-in hybrid Lynk & Co 08. Positioned as a sport touring model, the 07 GT is intended to broaden the brand's appeal to new customer groups seeking a combination of driving enjoyment, design, comfort and everyday practicality. As with all Lynk & Co models sold in Europe, the vehicle will be adapted to regional regulations, market requirements and customer preferences ahead of its planned launch in 2027.
