Scientists, climatologists, working for the Intergovernmental Panel for Climate Change (IPCC), coming from different countries which are UN members, also Poland, examine the issue of climate change, its causes and effects and present possible actions with the goal of preventing these effects. Would you like Poland to be more involved in actions to prevent negative effects of climate change or not? |            |           |               |             |                   | Number of people |
