Takeaway.com and TripAdvisor announce partnership

Takeaway.com N.V. (AMS: TKWY), the leading online food delivery marketplace in Continental Europe, today announced a partnership with TripAdvisor (NASDAQ: TRIP), the world's largest travel site, integrating partners from Takeaway.com's network of over 31,000 restaurants into TripAdvisor's desktop site, mobile website and app experiences.

Beginning today, consumers browsing TripAdvisor restaurant listings are able to easily order food from Takeaway.com's restaurant partners across Germany, the Netherlands, Poland, Austria, Belgium, Switzerland, France, Luxembourg and Portugal by simply clicking the "Order Online" button. Once clicked, consumers are brought to Takeaway.com's website to quickly and easily place an order for delivery.

We are very happy that TripAdvisor has chosen Takeaway.com as their partner to offer their users the most convenient way of ordering food from the widest choice in restaurants and kitchen types in Continental Europe. We are looking forward to partner with TripAdvisor and further expand our leading position in Europe.

— Jörg Gerbig, COO Takeaway.com.

"With more than 4.4 million restaurant listings, TripAdvisor continues to evolve into the go-to dining resource for travellers and locals worldwide," said Evan Becker, TripAdvisor Head of Restaurant Commerce. "We're thrilled to partner with Takeaway.com to provide our users with access to thousands of new food delivery options from their network of restaurant partners."

All Takeaway.com brands* including Thuisbezorgd.nl, Lieferando.de, Pyszne.pl, Lieferservice.at, Lieferservice.ch, Takeaway.com, Pizza.fr, Pizza.pt, Pizza.lu, will be integrated into TripAdvisor.

Terms and length of the agreement will not be disclosed.
