GTA Supports Hui Nalu Guam Ocean Club Summer Surf Camp Series

Tamuning, Guam, Friday, July 22, 2022- GTA announced its support for the Hui Nalu Ocean Club' Surf into Summer' surf camp at the Onward Beach Resort from July through August. The local telecom company empowers the island's youth by supporting groups and organizations that grow and develop the younger generation.

Joe Villatora, Hui Nalu Surf Club Founder, says, "This year has to be one of our most special thus far as we come out of the pandemic, and GTA has stepped up and sponsored the summer surf camp uniforms. Our program has been successful with private companies such as GTA."

Joe and Demi Villatora founded the Hui Nalu Surf Club in 2011, and both have been deeply involved in the Guam surf community for over 20 years. The annual summer camp offers surf lessons for children ages 8 to 17. Through GTA's support, the company designed and donated dri-fit shirts for all participants.

Michele Catahay Perez, Community Relations Manager at GTA, says, "We are thrilled to be a part of activities that support our local surf community and give opportunities for our kids to learn and grow. Thanks to the Hui Nalu Surf Club, our island delivers a world-class, fun experience for our youth to compete nationally and internationally."

The Hui Nalu Surf Club also offers water and surf safety lessons year-round. For more about Hui Nalu Surf Club, visit their Facebook page HERE.
